

BFuel Canada Corp & AT AGRAR-TECHNIK GmbH & Co. KG

On May 27th, 2009 BFuel Canada Corp and AT AGRAR-TECHNIK GmbH & Co. KG hosted an “invitation only” Investors information session. AT AGRAR-TECHNIK GmbH & Co. KG presented a profile of their company and its projects, as well as their involvement and design requirements for the BFuel Integrated Crusher and Biodiesel Refinery.

BFuel Canada Corp is in the final engineering stages of the “BFuel Chin Lakes Integrated Oilseed Crusher and Biodiesel Refinery” in the County of Lethbridge, Alberta. The facility will have a production capacity of 50 million litres of premium biodiesel per year and co-products consisting of 70,000 tonnes canola meal and 9,000 tonnes of pharmaceutical grade glycerine.

AT members of the meeting:

Andreas Lechner, Project Manager and AT Engineer responsible for Development, Process Engineering & Automation;

Moritz Gaede, AT Partner and past president of the European Biodiesel Board.

AT AGRAR-TECHNIK GmbH & Co. KG, based in Germany, one of the world leaders in providing state-of-the-art Biodiesel technology. AT provides turn-key plants, process development, engineering, implementation, and start-up and process optimization along with an experienced and competent support system. AT AGRAR-TECHNIK GmbH & Co. KG is the refinery equipment supplier for BFuel, Canada Corp’s Chin Lakes Project.